

Destini Jack of Nome gives it her all as she competes in the long jump at the ARCO Jesse Owens Games national championships in Los Angeles. Destini failed to place in the top three of her age group. However, she had won first place in the Fairbanks North Alaska Regionals to qualify for a place on the 18-member team that competed in the nationals.