

WE ARE ALL ONE PEOPLE—Replying to charges by Joe Upickson that the Tlingit share of the land claims money is tainted, John Borbridge, President of the Tlingit-Haida Central Council, affirmed this people's partnership in native land claims.

Humble Oil Education Foundation Gives UA $2500

COLLEGE An unrestricted cash gift of $2,500 has been presented to the University of Alaska by the Humble Oil Education Foundation. It is the second such gift from the foundation to the university.

Dr. William R. Wood, president of the university, accepted the $2,500 gift from C.H. Rosenthal, Alaska public relations manager for the Humble Oil and Refining Company.

The Humble foundation this year distributed grants totaling $870,000 to some 90 colleges and universities.

In the past, the Humble Companies Charitable Trust gave $10,000 to the university's Student Orientation Service, which assists students from the rural areas of Alaska, particularly natives, to make the transition to university life and the oil company itself granted $6,374 to help finance the university's art demonstration tours, which seek to help villages where native art still exists to maintain and develop this art.

IPA Announces Igtanloc Member

The Board of Governors of the International Platform Association announce the election to IPA membership of Irving J. Igtanloc of Barrow.

Mr. Igtanloc is manager of the Barrow Manpower Center, President of the Alaska Native Brotherhood, Barrow Camp, and has been an officer in the Barrow Lion's Club. He is Treasurer on the Board of Directors of the Barrow Youth Center Building and a member of the Arctic Slope Native Association.

Born in Petersburg, Alaska in 1937, Mr. Igtanloc is married to Beatrice M. Pangeo and has four children. He is a graduate of Mt. Edgemore High School and attended Oregon State College.

The International Platform Association is a non-partisan organization of distinguished and dedicated persons from fifty-five nations. Its ancestor, the American Lyceum Association, out of which the IPA evolved, was founded one hundred fifty years ago by Daniel Webster.

The IPA has included among its members most of the U.S. Presidents since Theodore Roosevelt, including Mr. Nixon and his two predecessors.

Its present membership lists many celebrities of the press,

T.V., radio, movies and the theatre as well as a leavening of those who listen, who are interested in furthering IPA's objectives.

The IPA is the club and trade association of those who appear before audiences in all the media and of those interested in oratory and the power of the spoken word.
