

NATIVE ALLOTMENT APPLICANTS

Alaska Natives whose application for a Native allotment was not filed by RurAL CAP before the deadline of December 18, 1971, may get their land after all, because of a lawsuit brought by Alaska Legal Services on their behalf.

If you can answer yes to all three questions below, you should send your name and address to: Fanny Barr Class, c/o Clerk, U.S. District Court, Federal Building, Anchorage, Alaska 99513, your letter must be received on or before November 22, 1982.

1. I filled out an application for a Native allotment and gave it to the RurAL CAP worker, before December 18, 1971, but, to my knowledge, it was not delivered to the United States Government.
2. I am eligible for an allotment.
3. I am prepared to testify to these matters under oath and being fully aware of the penalties against perjury.

YOUR LETTER MUST BE RECEIVED ON OR BEFORE NOVEMBER 22, 1982 TO HAVE IT CONSIDERED. Describe in your letter, as best you can, where the land you are claiming is located.

For any additional information, please contact your nearest office of Alaska Legal Services.
