

Right Family, Wrong Groh

ANCHORAGE—Recently we picked up an article titled "Native Land Claims: Are They Just?" by Clifford Groh II from Anchorage Daily News. In an editor's note we explained Groh was an attorney for Native organizations and a state legislator.

Not so, explained embarrassed Rep. Cliff Groh I. Cliff Groh II is his son who is a 17-year-old senior at West High School.

Well, we admired the writing when we thought it was done by an adult, so we really take our hats off to 17-year-old Groh II.
