NOTICE TO AIRMEN, GUIDES AND HUNTERS

Lands adjacent to the northern boundary of the gates of the arctic National Park in the Chandler Lake Region are the private property of the Arctic Slope Regional Corporation (ASRC). Certain site and trail easements are reserved on ASRC lands for public use in this area. Their use is limited to provide access to Chandler Lake by float plane, temporary (not more than 24 hours) camping at a site near the lakes' shore and, for trail access to adjacent public lands. Sport hunting is not allowed on ASRC lands, including easements, and entry upon such lands for any purpose other than access to adjacent public lands, including sport hunting, requires the written consent of the Arctic Slope Regional Corporation. Trespassers will be prosecuted.
