

Ambulance service to receive award

Nominations are being sought for outstanding ambulance service by the Southern Region Emergency Medical Services Council for exemplary service in Alaska.

Citizens or organizations are encouraged to obtain nomination forms from the council, 6130 Tuttle Place, Suite 2, Anchorage 99507-2041 and submit them by Sept. 4.

The award carries $500 in gift certificates, offered by Max Fonger, president of Safety Inc. and will be presented Nov. 14 at the Tenth Annual Emergency Medical Services awards banquet.

The State Advisory EMS Council will make the final award decision.