

CINA to enlarge alcohol center

CINA has received a grant to enlarge the Alcohol Treatment Center located in Eklutna by two beds. It will now be a 12-bed facility.

* * *

The Eklutna Treatment Center has been re-named the Amouak Treatment Center. Chris Walunga-Bywater has been appointed the new Director.

* * *

CINA now has a physician going to Tyonek once a month to treat patients.

* * *

In addition, much ground-work has been done to retain the Community Health Representative Program in Alaska.