

Sand Point, King Cove get safety grants

The Community Health Boards of Sand Point and King Cove will be receiving funds for the construction of their safety awareness programs. The funds are what remains of a State accident prevention grant that was given to A/PIA.

It already has provided the "Safety Week" activities in the two communities and the remaining money will be divided to provide continued support for whatever projects the communities feel are important.