

QUEEN COMPETITION lends a regal twist to the World Eskimo-Indian Olympics. Queen Ginny Nathan of the Cook Inlet Native Association is surrounded here by other contestants in the 1975 Olympic Games. The young women are judged on their poise, beauty and knowledge of their Native heritage.

—Photo By MARGIE BAUMAN