

ELAINE RAMOS, Vice-president for Rural Educational Affairs at the University of Alaska, extends hands of congratulations to Maria Moses who was among students honored at Kenai Peninsula Community College's commencement exercises May 5. Dr. Robert Hiatt, president of the statewide system of higher education looks on. Maria Moses, who is from Golovin, received a vocational certificate in secretarial studies from the college which comes under the University's REA office.