

Archie W. Demmert, Tlingit, Finalist in Look Magazine Teacher of yr. Award

Blatchley Junior High School teacher, Archie W. Demmert of Sitka, is one of five finalists for the 1969 national teacher of the year award.

Demmert is a Tlingit Indian. He teaches sixth grade at the Blatchley school in Sitka.

The teacher awards program is sponsored by Look Magazine in cooperation with the Council of Chief State School Officers.

Archie Demmert was nominated by Dr. Cliff Hartmen, state commissioner of education.

National Teacher of the Year winner will be announced this spring.