

Welcome, North Slope Borough Readers!

The Tundra Times is pleased to welcome our 4,000 new readers this Fall. Beginning three weeks ago, the 737 families living on the north slope started to receive our paper each week.

The newspaper is being sent to the north slope families courtesy of the North Slope Borough Community Education Program, which has also started to publish a monthly news page in the Tundra Times, called The North Slope Bulletin.