

Fishing Violators

Fifty-seven fishermen were cited over the weekend for commercial fishing violations in the Dillingham, Naknek, and Egegik areas, the Department of Public Safety announced today.

About half of the violators have been arraigned and fined a gross sum of approximately $7,500.

Violations included: Subsistence fishing without a permit and unmarked gear, fishing in a closed area, fishing with no vessel license, and fishing with another person's gear.