

ASRAA receives MarkAir tickets

The Association for Stranded Rural Alaskans in Anchorage has been given a donation of 10 airline tickets from MarkAir, according to ASRAA officials.

The tickets will be used to provide travel assistance to individuals and families who have become stranded in Anchorage due to medical conditions which required them to come to Anchorage.

ASRAA assists people with emergency shelter, airfare and social services. Those who want to reach ASRAA may call 277-7043.
