The proposed amendments provide generally as follows:

(1) 19 AAC 30.040(c) is amended to require the applications for shared revenues shall be returned to the Department postmarked not later than October 15 of the entitlement year.

(2) 19 AAC 30.060 is amended by redefining the method of determining population estimates to conform to provisions of legislation adopted during the second session of the Eighth Alaska Legislature and to provide that the method of population offered by boroughs may be conclusive as to determinations of population for all constituent cities.

(3) 19 AAC 30.070(a) is amended by clarification of the reference to "public accountants" in audit requirements imposed by AS 29.48.
220, by defining that term with respect to professional licensing requirements.

(4) 19 AAC 30.090(a) is amended by defining the amount of shared revenue payable as a prepayment.

(5) 19 AAC 30.090(b) is amended by allowing remission of prepayment upon receipt of a completed application.

(6) 19 AAC 30.090(c) is repealed.

(7) 19 AAC 30.150(3) is amended by revising definitions relating to the scope of municipal assistance in support of public parks and recreation programs of facilities.

(8) 19 AAC 30.150 is amended by adding a new subsection specifying minimal levels of police protection services.

Notice is also given that any
