

1,001 Nights To Be Shown At Alaskaland

The timeless favorite, A THOUSAND AND ONE NIGHTS, will be the opening film July 9th at the Civic Arts Theater at Alaskaland when the Alaska Association for the Arts bring excitement to summer for Fairbanks children.

Showtime is 10:00 AM every Tuesday through July and August.

Rollicking comedy will follow on July 16th with one of the Marx Brothers' all-time-greats. And laughter will ring Tuesday morning, July 23rd, when Buster Keaton stars in STEAM BOAT BILL, JR.

Next, an intriguing change of pace, with two Russian-made cartoons titled MAGIC HORSE and THE FISH AND THE FISHERMAN.

Tickets for these fine-quality children's movies are only $2.00 per month. Tickets are now on sale at Adlers Book Shop, A-1 Record Shop, College Floral and Gift Shop, and from Art Association board members.
