

Tanana Flood Control Project

House and Senate conferees in Washington agreed last Wednesday to include the unbudgetted $50,000 in Public Works appropriation bill for redesigning the Tanana River Flood Control project.

Senate Appropriations Committee at the urging of Senators Gruening and Bartlett had earlier included unspecified amount for Corps of Engineers for redesigning of the project.

Conference Committee has now allocated $50,000 considered adequate by the Corps of Engineers.