

Hearings on state assistance set this week

Two public hearings for the recipients of state cash assistance programs will be held in the coming week.

A public hearing for public assistance recipients will be held Nov. 6 from 2 to 9 p.m. at the Willow Park Housing Project at 535 E. 9th St., in Anchorage. Sen. Vic Fischer of Anchorage is looking for comment from recipients of assistance programs such as Aid for Dependent Children, Old Age Assistance, general relief assistance, food stamps, and blind assistance.

Children are welcome and the building is accessible for the handicapped.

A statewide teleconference hearing will be held from 4 to 8 p.m. Anchorage time for all communities on the statewide teleconference network. The hearing in Anchorage will be at the Legislative Affairs Office, 1024 W. 6th Ave. Recipients of the same program benefits are asked to attend if they have compliments, complaints or questions about the programs.
