

Location changed for ASRAA cross cultural workshop

The location for the Cross Cultural Communications seminar sponsored by the Association of Stranded Rural Alaskans in Anchorage has been changed to the Clarion Hotel.

The workshop — Learning to Walk in Two Worlds With One Spirit — is designed to assist people working with Alaska Natives in gaining an understanding to Native thought processing, time sequencing, history and language differences. It will be held Thursday.

Mary Wolcott, ASRAA executive director, said the location had to be changed because of the large number of people who have pre-registered. So far, she said, more than 80 people have signed up.

Those who want more information may contact Bunny Perritt at ASRAA, 277-7043.
