

Barrow gets new postmaster

Gail Sampson is the new postmaster of Barrow, an associate office of the Fairbanks postal service.

Sampson has worked for the Barrow Post Office since May 1983. Before being named postmaster, she was a distribution/window clerk at the post office.

She is married and has three daughters. Her husband is a land's realty officer at the North Slope Borough Land Planning Department.
