

SCHOOLS AND PUBLIC FACILITIES

JUNEAU — The state has awarded contracts totaling $3.6 million for construction of school and other public facilities in six Alaska communities, Governor William A. Egan said.

The contracts, administered by the Department of Public Works, went to:

Toombs & Co., Fairbanks, for a $1.4 million elementary school at Nome.

Woodruff Construction Co., Anchorage, for a $219,000 classroom and storage addition at Glennallen High School.

Linton Construction Co.,

Linwood, Wash., for a $58,500 building to house sewage treatment facilities at Allakaket School.

Burgess Construction Co., Fairbanks, for a $1,048,600 detention facility and upgrading of the existing facility at Fairbanks.

Polmateer Construction Co., Anchorage, for a $93,000 addition to the Tok Health Center.

Interstate Co., Inc., Anchorage, for a $764,050 highway complex shop building at Anchorage.