

State aid for heating and electric bills

The State of Alaska Division of Public Assistance has over a million dollars to help low-income households pay their home heating and electric bills through the Energy Assistance Program.

Applications for Energy Assistance are available at all Public Assistance offices in urban areas, through Fee Agents in rural areas, or by writing:

Energy Assistance Program
Division of Public Assistance
Pouch H-07
Juneau, AK 99811