

Sealaska receives conveyance

Sealaska received interim conveyance to 35,745 acres from the Bureau of Land Management under terms of the Native claims act. The corporation received entitlement to both the surface and the subsurface estate. The BLM has conveyed a total of approximately 195,226 acres to Sealaska under terms of the Act.