

Persons Urged to Contact BLM—Testifying on Proposed Gasline

All persons interested in testifying at hearings on the proposed Arctic Gas Pipeline are urged to contact the Bureau of Land Management (BLM) immediately.

Public comment is sought on an environmental impact statement (EIS) prepared by the Department of the Interior. The EIS is a 9,000 page study on the proposed Alaskan Arctic Gas Pipeline from Prudhoe Bay, Alaska, through Canada to terminals in Pennsylvania and Canada.

Since no EIS has yet been prepared on the all-Alaska route proposed by El Paso Alaska Company, there is no basis for comparison of the two routes; however, a close look at the environmental impacts of the arctic route is necessary.

The arctic route would include a 195 mile stretch of pipeline in Alaska from Prudhoe Bay to the Alaska-Yukon border.

The Fairbanks hearings will be at the Traveler's Inn on September 29 and 30 from 8:00 A.M. to 10:00 P.M.. Hearings will be held in Anchorage on September 25 and 26 at the Performing Arts Center. The final two days of the hearings will be October 2 and 3 at the Baronof Hotel in Juneau.

Copies of the draft EIS are available for review at BLM offices, and public and university libraries throughout the state.
