

Retires Then Job—

Noel Wright Award

At a general staff meeting this week, Agency Superintendent Wallace O. Craig conferred upon Mr. Wright H. Noel The Department of the Interior's Honor Award for Commendable Service.

The award reads in part "... Upon retirement after thirty years of service with the Bureau of Indian Affairs." "... In recognition of his devoted service with the Indian and Eskimo people and to the Bureau of Indian Affairs, Mr. Wright Noel is granted the Department of Interior Commendable Service Award."

Mr. and Mrs. Noel will be leaving this week for California where Mr. Noel has accepted a position as Director, Allied Welding Schools, Inc., at Berkeley.

Mr. Noel will continue to be in contact with Indian people as the Bureau of Indian Affairs utilizes this training facility in their Adult Vocational Training Program in Oakland.
