

EMS response 'outstanding'

Emergency Medical Services Week started with a bash. The 2nd Annual Safety/Health Fair, Sept. 15 at the University Center in Anchorage began a week of safety awareness for Alaskans.

Health, safety and prevention topics for Alaska's youth highlighted the fair.

"The response was outstanding. It had to have doubled from last year," said Kristi Stringer, public information specialist for Southern Region Emergency Medical Services. "This was a phenomenal response."
