

ANNOUNCING SPECIAL SERVICES

FOR VOTERS WITH SPECIAL NEEDS
GENERAL ELECTION
NOVEMBER 6, 1990

FOR VOTERS WITH IMPAIRED VISION: Magnifiers will be available at the polling places and absentee voting sites.

FOR VOTERS WITH IMPAIRED HEARING: Call our TTY number - 465-3020

FOR VOTERS WHO ARE PHYSICALLY DISABLED: The Division of Elections has tried to select the most handicapped accessible polling places available within each precinct. But if you have difficulty getting to your polling place here is something you should know!

- You may go to any polling place in your district! (You'll be asked to vote a question ballot, but as soon as your eligibility is verified your vote will be counted.)

- You may REGISTER and VOTE BY MAIL!

- You may vote THROUGH A PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE! (Any person you choose may bring your ballot to you so you may vote at home.)

THE LAND IS FOR THE FUTURE.

All Alaskans have their own lifestyle, their own perspective, and their own spark that makes them grow. But there is one thing we all share. The land. As we harvest her gifts with care and pride, the land remains our source of strength — enhancing our lives today, and bringing us hope for tomorrow.
