ASEA/AFSCME LOCAL 52, AFL-CIO POSITION RECRUITMENT BUSINESS MANAGER

The Alaska State Employees Association (ASEA/AFSCME Local 52) is accepting applications for Business Manager. This is a full-time position, with the Business Manager serving as the chief administrative officer for the state's largest Labor Union (ASEA represents more than 8,500 state employees throughout Alaska). The Business Manager serves at the pleasure of, and reports to the Union's Executive Board. Salary is set by the Executive Board and is dependent on experience.

Within parameters established by the Union's Executive Board, this position is responsible for the overall operational and administrative functions of the Union including, but not limited to, personnel management, budget preparation and planning, policy development, and public relations. This is a highly visible position that interfaces with the Union's membership, the public, the media, and the Alaska Legislature. The Business Manager's position is based in Anchorage, but some travel is required.

The successful candidate must have a Bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university, five years of relevant experience—at least three of which are at a senior management level with hiring and firing responsibilities—budget planning and policy development duties. Additional relevant experience may substitute for the education requirement. Experience with labor unions is preferred, as is familiarity with the State of Alaska and with Alaska labor and political issues. Job descriptions are available from ASEA/AFSCME Local 52, AFL-CIO.

Interested persons should send their resume, a completed state of Alaska employment application, professional references and a letter of interest stating salary requirements to:

Mr. Paul DeSloover, President
ASEA/AFSCME Local 52, AFL-CIO
3111 C Street, Suite 325
Anchorage, Alaska 99503

To be considered, applications must be received no later than the close of business October 10, 1990.
