

Ferguson hosts Miss NCAI

State Sen. Frank Ferguson, president of the Alaska Federation of Natives, Inc. recently completed two days as host for the Miss National Congress of American Indians, (NCAI), Miss Mary Titla. As part of her duties as Miss NCAI, is ambassadore of the Native American people and was on tour of Alaska's major cities. Her first stop was Juneau.

An Apache from San Carlos, Arizona, Miss Titla Graduates this spring from the University of Oklahoma's journalism school. The grand tour of Alaska's capitol city included an official welcome from the governor's office, a meeting with legislative Bush Caucus, through Rep. Al Adam's office, and tours of the scenic and historic Juneau sites.

State Sen. Nels Anderson introduced Miss NCAI to the Alaska State Senate, and an official welcome to the city was made by Mayor Overstreet of Juneau. Other activities included a public reception hosted by Tlingit-Haida Community Council, Sealaska Corp. and the Alaska Native Brotherhood.