

ALASKA NATIVE TRAINING INSTITUTE

Offers a 24 credit hour series of courses designed to provide the student with an over-all exposure to the range of courses essential to being a well-rounded counselor. These courses consider topics such as: Introduction to Indian Alcoholism Counseling; Human Development and Substance Abuse; Introduction to Counseling Principles and Therapies; Substance Abuse Counseling in Groups; Case Development and Management; Community Resources and others.

In addition, the Institute will work with your group or organization to design special sections developed to suit your specific needs and problems.

Series are currently offered in Anchorage, Eagle River, and Kenai. New series begin in Kotzebue, Nome, and Dillingham in December.

For information, please call 272-3042 or write to: The Alaska Native Training Institute, P.O. Box 42092, Anchorage, Alaska 99509.
