

NORTH Commission Meets July 9

JUNEAU—Governor Keith H. Miller announced this week that a meeting of the NORTH Commission has been scheduled for July 9 and 10 at the Captain Cook Hotel in Anchorage.

The two-day meeting, which the Governor will attend, will be for the purpose of considering the transportation corridor from the interior of Alaska north to the Arctic Slope.

The NORTH Commission, charged with overseeing the orderly development of the interior of the State, will evaluate the feasibility of establishing a common corridor to the Slope for all modes of surface transportation including rail, road and pipeline.
