

Applicants sought for Della Keats health program

The Alaska Native Health Career Program is now accepting applications for the 1991 Della Keats Summer Enrichment Program to be held in Anchorage, June 17 to July 27, 1991.

This program offers six weeks of preparation in math, science and English for college-bound students.

Applicants will also receive a full orientation to the University of Alaska Anchorage campus.

Students' travel and meal expense will be funded by the Rural Alaska Health Professions Foundation which has appropriated $19,880 for the Della Keats Summer Enrichment Program.

High school students and others interested in health careers, such as nursing, dental hygiene, psychology, sociology and other related fields, are encouraged to apply.

Tuition, room and board are provided.
