

Hess elected board chairman for Calista Corp. for 1990-91

Felix P. Hess of Mountain Village was elected by a unanimous vote to the position of chairman of the Calista Corp. board of directors.

The Calista board met in Anchorage recently to elect officers for the 1990-91 year.

Hess has been a Calista board member since 1988 and was treasurer during the past year. His background is in land-related matters. He is currently a real estate specialist with the Association of Village Council Presidents. He has worked as a land planner for several village corporations and was a land planner in the Calista Land and Natural Resources Department from 1980-84.

In addition to his membership on the Calista board, he is also chairman of Azachorok Inc., the village corporation of Mountain Village, where he is enrolled and currently resides. He is also vice president of the Mountain Village Traditional Council.

Other officers elected at the meeting were Fred K. Phillip of Kwigillingok, vice chairman; Nelson N. Angapak of Anchorage, secretary; and Margaret P. Phillip of Bethel, treasurer.

Ivan M. Ivan of Akiak, who has been chairman for the past two years, did not seek re-election. He continues as a board member, but chose not to seek re-election to the chairman position because he was elected to the House in the Alaska Legislature.

New officers of the Calista board include, from left, Nelson N. Angapak, secretary; Margaret Phillips, treasurer; Fred K. Phillips, vice chairman; and Felix P. Hess, chairman.