

Tennessee Miller, Alaskan

"I'm a great believer in the free enterprise system, because I've been a part of it for so long. I collect old cars. And I'm able to do that because people sell their old cars and buy new ones. That's the way the system works. That's free enterprise — and that's the way it should be. Keep too tight a rein on the economy, and it's likely to stop."

"Yep, Alaska business is sort of like a mule team. Give it its head just a little — and watch the economy grow. More jobs, more business, and a chance to get Alaska moving again."

At Atlantic Richfield Company, we care about people like Tennessee Miller. We know it takes all of us to build the kind of Alaska we all want.
