

A SUCCESSFUL ALLIANCE

"The air services we provide in Southwest Alaska are essential, but we wouldn't be here if it wasn't for Alliance Bank."

— Mike Harder
Manokotak Air

"Manokotak is a small air charter service providing transportation for people and freight between Dillingham and the villages in Southwest Alaska.

Out here, almost all transportation takes place by air and safe air travel is a service that people rely on 24 hours a day. We provide that service. In fact, when someone is injured or ill in one of the villages, our planes frequently serve as the ambulances that bring them in to the hospital in Dillingham.

Our business is very capital intensive, and we've got to have a financial institution solidly behind us to keep the planes in the air.

We'd gone to several other institutions, but the only bank that was willing to help our company get started was Alliance Bank and they've stood behind us ever since"
