

Minto 4th Plans Underway

MINTO—The villagers at Minto are already planning their annual Fourth of July celebration. Among the activities scheduled are the traditional games of jumping, running and hopping skills.

The stick-pulling game, boat races and a baseball game will also be featured. Of course, there will be a potlatch.

People from Fairbanks and all of the other villages along the rivers are invited to attend.