We need newsboys and girls in every village and city in Alaska—and in other states, too.

The following is a true, success story:

Newsboy of the Month

KOTZEBUE, (Special) — Jerry Hawley, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Hawley Sr. of this city, was chosen the

Jerry Hawley

outstanding newsboy for June by the Tundra Times this week.

Jerry, 14, began selling papers in Kotzebue in late May. Through persistence and hard work he increased his sales to the point where he is now selling over 100 papers every week.

In the selection of Jerry Hawley, Tundra Times is initiating a monthly award to any young boy or girl who demonstrates outstanding achievement by selling more newspapers and subscriptions than any other carrier.

The Tundra Times presented Jerry with a check for five dollars.

ALABAMA: A Creek Indian word. Widely but erroneously believed to mean "here we rest," its true meaning is unknown.

There's a wonderful new baby food on the market. It's half orange juice and half garlic. It not only makes the baby healthier but easier to find in the dark.
