

Competition competition, competition

Peggy Fremmering concentrates...

...prepares to jump...

...and makes a two-foot high kick.

Dancers from Arctic Village wait their turn to perform.

Photos by Bill Hess

Angella Tritt of Arctic Village won first place in the Indian Dress contest.

Eebrulick Rock, younger brother of Tundra Times founder Howard Rock, beams as he receives applause and special recognition.

Summer Dawn Alexander of Fort Yukon momentarily turns her back to the horde of photographers gathered to snap baby pictures.

Joshua Okpik of Barrow breaking the world record in the ear weight competition.

A friendly hand offers a pepsi to a hot Peter Soloman after he finishes the race of the torch.