WILLIE RATCLIFF

- born and raised in a rural village to believe in the sanctity of nature
- an Alaskan for 31 years
- joint ventured with Doyon Ltd. to build Sheep Creek Camp
- hired more Alaska Natives than any other contractor building the Valdez terminal
- State Human Rights Commissioner 1972 - 1979
- spearheaded investigation that led to establishment of village high schools
- vigorously opposes repeal of the subsistence law

The district with 40% of the Anchorage Native population deserves a friend, a man of honor and courage, in the Alaska Senate.
