

Introducing GOLDEN SAMOVAR SERVICE

Alaska's Russian heritage comes alive on every Alaska Airlines jet flight.

During the 1800's when Alaska was a Russian territory, the Samovar was a prized possession in every Russian/Alaskan home, a symbol of elegance.

Now, Alaska Airlines is using this elegant teapot to serve a special "Golden Samovar" beverage created by the House of Seagram, and is presenting it as the centerpiece to a feast of history on every jet flight.

A feast that includes lovely balalaika music, attractive hostesses in richly tailored Cossack tunics, authentic Russian menus featuring Caviar, Steak a la Romanoff, Chicken a la Kiev, Veal Orloff, Beef Stroganoff and more.

Golden Samovar Service is a new dimension in flight for everyone who travels to, from and within the Great Land—Alaska.
