

Special Election Gives Kotzebue Wet Status

The town of Kotzebue last week voted to legalize liquor dispensing and a total of 437 voters turned out for the special election.

There were 272 votes in favor of sale of liquor in the town and 156 against. Nine votes were rejected.

Kotzebue voted dry some two years ago after establishing the sale of liquor for a while previously.