

'Below O' entertains young, old in Emmonak, nearby villages

EMMONAK — On Dec. 26 a Rock Band, "Below O," arrived in Emmonak and did a splendid job in entertaining the young and old people from Emmonak and the surrounding villages.

The next day, two more exciting events took place here. The 8th Annual Men's League Christmas Tournament, including 16 teams from Emmonak and the surrounding villages, was held from the 27th through the 30th.

A new team made its first appearance in the tournament, the Unalakleet "Young Bloods."

The final results of the basketball tournament were:

- 1st place — Mountain Village Sonics.
- 2nd place — Unalakleet Young Bloods.
- 3rd place — Emmonak Busters.

Also, an Athabaskan fiddling duet was performed for the citizens of Emmonak.
