

Bill would 'Americanize' fishing vessels

U.S. Rep. Don Young has introduced legislation in Congress to require that all fishing, fish processing and fish tender vessels be built in the United States, be owned by American citizens and have American crews.

The legislation, similar to that introduced in the last Congress, has been referred to the House Committee on Merchant Marine and Fisheries, on which Young serves.