

Keats to receive degree in August

Native doctor Della Keats has been chosen by the College of Osteopathic Medicine of the Pacific to be granted the honorary degree of Doctor of Humane Letters.

The honorary degree will be given to her at the college in August.

Doctor Keats will be traveling to the college, located at Pomona, California to receive the degree.

Katherine Johnson, Director of the University of Alaska-Anchorage Native Health Career Program, will be traveling with Keats.

Photo by John Creed