

Barrow wins two

The Barrow Whalers girls basketball team won two games against the visiting Nenana Lynx in action held January 5 and 6. The Whalers exploded in the second half to win 45-31 to win the first game. The leading scorers for Barrow were not reported. However, Julie Caulter scored 11 points to lead Nenana scoring.

On Tuesday, January 9, the Whalers had to hold off the Lynx in the fourth quarter to win 39-38. The Lynx trailed 35-26 at the end of the third quarter, but outscored the Whalers 12-4 in the final frame. Once again the leading scorers were not reported for Barrow, however, Nenana was led by Skook Irwin's 11 points.