

Nenana Lynx split two games

The Nenana Lynx boys basketball team split a pair of games in last weekend's Region 2 action. The Lynx lost on Friday to the powerful Tri-Valley Warriors 89-58 and rebounded on Saturday by defeating Susitna Valley at Talkeetna, 67-59.

In Friday's action, TriValley overpowered the shorter Lynx behind Tad Pollock who poured in 45 points to lead the Warriors on a rampage in the second quarter as Tri Valley raced to a 42-21 halftime edge. Mike Price also tallied 12 for the Warriors. Nenana was led by Stuart Ketzler and Ted Hasbrouck, each with 12 points.

On Saturday, Susitna Valley opened up a 50-35 lead over the Lynx only to fall victim to a late rally which allowed Nenana to defeat the Rams by eight points. Nenana was led by Ted Hasbrouck and Stuart Ketzler with 24 and 19 points respectively. Susitna was led by Larry Walker with 18 and Ralph Sousa who hit for 15 points.
