

Craft tables still available for AFN

Several craft tables are still available for the Alaska Federation of Natives 20th Annual Convention at the Egan Convention Center in Anchorage Oct. 16-18.

The craft tables are available to Alaska Native artists and craftsmen. A fee of $200 is charged for the entire three days of the convention. Interested parties are encouraged to contact Marge Shelton at 274-3611.

More than 1,000 delegates and observers are expected to attend this year's convention, celebrating AFN's 20th anniversary. The theme of the convention is "20 years of Integrity, Pride in Heritage, and Progress."

Byron Mallott, chief executive officer of the Sealaska Corp. and a past president of AFN, will be the keynote speaker at the convention. Other notable speakers will include Gov. Bill Sheffield, Congressman Don Young and Sen. Frank Murkowski.
