

Willard Civil Rights Panelist

ANCHORAGE—The Alaska Human Rights Commission announced that its Executive Director, Robert Willard will participate as a panelist in the Civil Rights Institute in Sun Valley, Idaho August 2 and 3.

The Institute, which is sponsored by the Boise Idaho State College, features top Civil Rights leaders in the Western United States in its topic of "State Roles in Civil Rights", which Willard will be a participant.

The theme of the Conference is "Quality Education and the Politics of Desegregation", and the College is sponsoring the conclave in cooperation with the U.S. Office of Education.
