

I think living in a small village is great for a lot of people because a person has less of a chance of getting lonely...simply because of the continual interaction between friends, family and neighbors.

Working in a village job can be as productive, busy, and satisfying as a city job because there are usually only one or two people in each organization conducting business for the entire village.

—Marilyn Attla, Health aide
Ruby, Alaska

sponsored by CIRI COOK INLET REGION, INC.

INVEST IN A LITTLE SPARE ROOM

If you need more than a room or two, look into two or more homes under the same roof.

A HUD Homes duplex, triplex or fourplex may be the answer for keeping the family close. If the folks are retired, they can live independently and still be right next door. Kids just married or going to college? What a better way to help them without having them actually "live at home."

You can even turn the extra space into extra income.

Put the right roof over your head. Your real estate agent will show you a HUD Homes property that fits your family, and a low down payment program to fit your budget.

HUD HOMES
OF ALASKA

HUD properties are offered for sale to qualified purchasers without regard to purchaser's race, color, religion, sex, age or national origin.

