

Lorin Phillips excels in accounting class

JUNEAU — Word was recently received that Juneau resident Lorin Phillips, son of Paulina Phillips, also of Juneau, is excelling in his accounting/computer program at Alaska Business College in Anchorage, according to the Central Council Tlingit and Haida Indian Tribes of Alaska.

Lorin made the Dean's List for winter term with 95 percent or better in his courses, and the Honor Roll with 90 percent or better for spring term. His program ends Nov. 1.

Lorin also serves with the Alaska Army National Guard and is a recipient of an Adult Vocational Training Award through Central Council.
